

Lincoln Plaza
89 South Street
Suite 404
Boston, Massachusetts
02111

617.654.9911
FAX 654.9922

www.accessproject.org

Home Sick How Medical Debt Undermines Housing Security

PRESS CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

---

November 9th, 2005, 12pm EST

Robert Seifert is the Access Project's Policy Director. He provides overall direction for the Project's research and policy analysis activities, including its work on medical debt. The Access Project, established in 1998, is a national resource center for local communities working to improve health care access. Bob is the author of Home Sick: How Medical Debt Undermines Housing Security.

Dr. Jeffrey Prottas is a Research Professor at Brandeis University's Heller Graduate School of Social Policy and a member of the senior staff of the Schneider Institute for Health Policy. He has served as Research Advisor to The Access Project since it began in 1998, and has played a central role in the conception and analysis of the Project's medical debt research.

Jessica Cecere is the President of Consumer Credit Counseling Service (CCCS) of Palm Beach County/Treasure Coast, Florida. CCCS is a non-profit, community service agency that provides free and confidential budget counseling, community-wide education programs in money management, debt management, and comprehensive housing counseling.

Pam Carmichael is the Executive Director of Home Opportunities Made Easy Incorporated (Home, Inc.) of Des Moines, Iowa. Home, Inc. is a private, non-profit corporation that provides housing counseling and information, confidential financial counseling, mediation, education, and client advocacy.

Nancy Cantor is a resident of Scottsdale, Arizona. She has two adult children and one grandchild. Nancy is a member of ACORN and also works part-time at Arizona ACORN.

Lynnette Swartz lives outside of Kansas City, Missouri. She is a grandmother to six children and works as an administrative assistant at JCPenney's.